

Program Overview

CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAM

The Raymond John Wean Foundation is committed to strengthening Mahoning Valley nonprofits in sound operations, thoughtful strategy and strong leadership to better achieve their missions. We view capacity building as a process to reach new levels of organizational effectiveness.

CAPACITY BUILDING FUND

The Capacity Building Fund provides consultation and technical assistance in the capacity elements of:

Leadership

The capacity of organizational leaders to inspire, prioritize, make decisions, provide direction and innovate.

Adaptability

The capacity of a nonprofit organization to monitor, assess and respond to changes.

Management

The capacity of a nonprofit organization to ensure the effective and efficient use of resources.

Operations

The capacity of a nonprofit organization to implement key organizational and programmatic functions.

CAPACITY BUILDING EVENTS

Inspiration, learning from shared practices and opportunities to develop connections – experiences essential to organizational success.

- Capacity Building Series

Through these interactive sessions, participants gain new ideas, usable strategies, approaches and actionable plans to increase efficiency and effectiveness.

- Networking Events

We encourage participants to connect and share experiences that lead to relationships, lasting long beyond the duration of the event.

- Neighborhood SUCCESS – Capacity Building Series

As a way to connect grassroots groups to each other and community resources, these opportunities provide facilitated discussions and networking.

- Leadership Development

Emerging Leaders leverages the unique assets of emerging leaders from Warren and Youngstown to create pathways to decision making tables in the Mahoning Valley..

KNOWLEDGE LIBRARY

The assessments, reports, and multimedia resources featured within the Knowledge Library are intended to deepen your learning and translate that knowledge into action.

MEETING SPACE

The Raymond John Wean Foundation Conference Rooms, are available to nonprofit, civic organizations and public entities for meetings and events.