

Oral History Project Receives State Award

The Trumbull County Historical Society has been recognized by the Ohio Museums Association for its Voices Oral History Project for best Education and Outreach program award in the state for 2020. Meghan Reed, director of the Trumbull County Historical Society, said the initiative was started by the society to preserve resident memories.

Click here for the full article